

CONTENTS

Abstract
Acknowledgements and Dedications
Abbreviations
Political Leaders of Pakistan and Bangladesh

Maps

1. CHAPTER ONE

- 1.1 Introduction
- 1.2 Indian State of Bihar
- 1.3 Bihari
- 1.4 Opportunities for the Biharis in East Pakistan
- 1.5 Urdu as the National Language of Pakistan East and West
- 1.6 Six Point Movement
- 1.7 1970 General Elections
- 1.8 East Pakistan becomes Bangladesh, Civil war, atrocities and Independence
- 1.9 Withdrawal of the Indian Army from the Refugee Camps
- 1.10 Role of the International Committee of Red Cross
- 1.11 Repatriation

2. CHAPTER TWO

- 2.1 Legal, Political and Practical Pressures
- 2.2 International Law - Assessment of Refugee Status
- 2.3 International status of Biharis as de facto Stateless Refugees
- 2.4 Pakistan - Denationalisation of Biharis
- 2.5 Bangladesh - Legal issue
- 2.6 The Establishment and Growth of the Bihari Camps
- 2.7 Table 2: Situation Report of Bihari Refugee Camps in Bangladesh, 1972
- 2.8 Table 3: Census of Stranded Pakistanis living in Camps in Bangladesh, 1992
- 2.9 Table 4: Situation Estimates of Bihari Refugees in 1996-97
- 2.10 Living Conditions in the Camps
- 2.11 Employment
- 2.12 Children/Education and Schooling
- 2.13 Conclusion

3. CHAPTER THREE

- 3.1 What can be done to relieve Bihari suffering?
- 3.2 Immediate Humanitarian Initiatives
- 3.3 International
- 3.4 Regional
- 3.5 The views of key officials
- 3.6 Rabita Al Alam Al Islami, Bangladesh
- 3.7 Minister of Law and Justice
- 3.8 Representative from the Pakistan High Commission
- 3.9 President SPGRC, Mr. Abdul Jabbar Khan

4. CHAPTER FOUR

- 4.1 The Way Forward
- 4.2 The Government of Pakistan
- 4.3 The Government of Bangladesh
- 4.4 The Stranded Pakistanis
- 4.5 The Political Possibilities – International
- 4.6 The Practical Considerations / Problems
- 4.7 Conclusion

Bibliography

Appendix

Visit to camps of the Stranded Pakistanis

Visit to Adamjee nagar Camp

Camps in the towns and cities (Bangladesh)

Pakistan